

Wyssen Avalanche Control is the industry leader in providing state of the art technology for avalanche control. The Wyssen remote avalanche control system and avalanche detection systems are recognized as the most operationally reliable and effective remote avalanche control system in the world.

Wyssen Canada Inc. is looking for an assistant project manager for our office in Revelstoke, BC. The assistant project manager will be responsible for installation and maintenance projects including the preparation of documentation, quality control, coordination of logistics and customer relations.

Our team consists of highly motivated and qualified people who are fully committed to finding innovative solutions to satisfy customer needs.

Assistant project manager

Responsibilities

- Management of Wyssen Canada Inc. projects including:
 - Site visits and communication with customers
 - Preparation of required documentation and reports
 - Quality control
 - Subcontractor management
 - Coordination of resources

- Fieldwork in exposed mountain and avalanche prone terrain
- Coordination of commissioning and de-commissioning remote avalanche control system deployment boxes with customers
- Customer support and consultation during and after project realization
- Technical service, maintenance and troubleshooting, remote and on-site for both, remote avalanche control system and avalanche detection systems
- Coordination with technical support team in Switzerland
- Marketing including visits of potential customers
- Presentation of Wyssen Canada Inc. products and services at tradeshow and conferences
- Production of presentation material and talks
- Administration and support of daily business activities

Essential qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in technical or natural sciences
- Excellent knowledge of MS Office applications, i.e. Excel, Word and PowerPoint
- Experience with project management including coordination and planning skills and maintaining client relationships
- Experience in writing reports, journal articles and scientific contributions
- Experience in construction
- Experience in helicopter operations
- 5 years of work experience in the avalanche industry

- CAA Level 1 or higher
- Criminal record check and Letter of Approval form NRCAN
- Experienced in work with explosives
- Experienced in exposed mountain terrain operations
- High level of physical fitness
- Must be able to lift/move 50lbs throughout a workday
- Self-motivated and able to work without supervision with excellent self-organization skills
- Excellent communication skills (internal and external)

Desirable qualifications and attributes

- Post graduate degree in technical or natural sciences
- Skills in a GIS software (QGIS)
- IRATA
- Blasting ticket

Terms of employment

Terms of employment: 80%, Start date as soon as possible – November with option to transition into permanent position

Language of work: English

Location of work: Revelstoke, BC; the successful candidate must be willing to travel in Canada and occasionally worldwide

Contact information

Walter Steinkogler

walter@wyssen.com / canada@wyssen.com

Company address:

Wyssen Canada Inc.
PO Box 2699, 201-217 Mackenzie Ave
Revelstoke, BC, V0E 2S0
Canada